Newly submitted claim 9 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: Applicant's original invention was directed to an illumination device not a combination illumination device and support surface. Therefore claim 9 has been withdrawn as not being directed to the original elected invention

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 9 has been withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Yu (5265357).

Claim 1

Yu discloses a device for illuminating a selected living space, which comprises:

Art Unit: 3633

a box-like body with a back wall 30/10d and side walls 10/11 extending from the back wall, a front wall 10c having a central opening 31 connected to the back wall 30 by the side walls 10/11 and a light source 21 extending at an inner side of the front wall 10c around the central opening and in proximity to the side walls, wherein a decorative image is reproduced on an inner face of the back wall, see figures 2 and 4, the side walls 10/11 having reflective inner surfaces 13e and a width substantially greater than the minimum necessary for housing the light source so as to enhance a sensation of depth conveyed by the image[.] internally on a frame delimiting the opening, the device projecting light in accordance with the image from the front wall and into the living space so as to create a sensation of natural luminosity.

Claim 2

Yu discloses the device set forth in claim 1, wherein the light source 21 is distributed along the length of the frame.

Claim 3

Yu discloses the light source is florescent [type].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yu in view of Grassi (4345395).

Claims 2-3

Yu appear to be a light source is of fluorescent type and distributed along the length of the frame. However, Grassi most assuredly discloses a picture box with a fluorescent light source distributed along the length of the frame. It would have been obvious to use a more natural light source to present a three dimensional depth to the picture as shown by Grassi.

Claims 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yu in view of Windisch et al (4128286).

Claims 4-8:

Yu lacks the decorative image reproduced on the back wall is a fraction of the size of a larger image, which may be generated by combining a plurality of the devices in a modular configuration. Windisch et al discloses a portable display for the display of graphic. Any one in the display art would have appreciated using a multiplicity of panels to provide a single display design. See column 2, lines 23 -30 of Windisch et al. since the device of Windisch et al is portable, the same may be applied to a ceiling or a wall. Windish et al discloses a device or apparatus 16/18/20/30/ C capable of being embedded ceiling or wall connection.

Art Unit: 3633

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
